

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Admissions Pathway Application Form (Undergraduate)

Background Information

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Admissions Pathway Program is designed to assist Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander applicants who are interested in pursuing tertiary education. In addition to gaining entry on the basis of an Australian Tertiary Admission Rank \(ATAR\), equivalent senior secondary award (OP, IB, GCE) or otherwise acquired rank, there is the opportunity to apply through the University of Queensland's for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Admissions Pathway program.

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Admissions Pathway considers a range of factors in addition to formal education, such as your employment history, academic achievement, personal interests and references. Under the Admissions Pathway Program, applicants are eligible for up to an additional 5 adjustment factors (rank points) to assist entry into the applicant's preferred program at the University of Queensland.

Eligibility Requirements

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Admissions Pathway (undergraduate) is available to people who:
